

How to get to Salisbury District Hospital

By Car

The Hospital is 2 miles to the south of the city near the village of Odstock. From the ring road, follow signs to Blandford and the South. Go up the hill and after the traffic lights turn left at the roundabout and straight on at the next roundabout. The hospital is 3/4 mile on your left. Approach Entrance B Immediately after entering through the entrance turn RIGHT in to the car park area.

Getting to Salisbury: From London take the M3 until you reach the A303. Follow the A303 until you reach Andover where you follow the A338 to Salisbury. When you reach the city ring road, turn left and follow signs for Salisbury District Hospital.

From Bristol follow the A36 south. From Southampton follow the A36 North. From the West follow the A303 until you meet the A36.

By Train and Local Bus

Salisbury is at the crossing point of the London to Exeter line and the Bristol to Southampton and Brighton line. Trains from London leave from Waterloo station. Travelling from the Midlands or North, change at either Bristol or Basingstoke. For train enquiries phone 0044 (0)345 48 49 50 or check <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/>

The hospital is a 3km taxi ride from the station. Alternatively catch the Pules Line bus from the station. Busses run every 10 minutes at peak times and less often at other times.
