

The Library

The Library consists mainly of books, journals and articles.

Book Sections:

- Communication & Counselling
- Education / Teaching
- Symptom Management
- Cancer Management / Oncology / Medicine (General)
- Death & Dying
- Bereavement (Children)
- Bereavement (Adults)
- Complementary Therapies / Self Help / Patient Experiences
- Directories / Service Development
- Supportive & Palliative Care
- Nursing (General) / Healthcare
- HCSW Resources
- Courses / Study Days / Conferences

Journal subscriptions to:

- European Journal of Palliative Care
- Palliative Medicine
- Oncology News
- Current Opinion in Supportive & Palliative Care
- International Journal of Palliative Nursing
- The National Council for Palliative Care
- British Journal of Healthcare Assistants
- Palliative & Supportive Care
- End of Life Care
- Practice Development in Health Care
- Bereavement Care
- Inside Palliative Care

Access

The Library service is available to all clinical staff and in-house students, and health care professionals allied to palliative care.

Anyone else who would like to visit the Library or Bookshop in person, is asked to first please phone the Education Department at Salisbury Hospice. The Library is open from 9am to 5pm, Monday-Friday.

Contact Us:

Email: hospiceeducation@salisbury.nhs.uk

Phone: 01722 666262 Ext. 2113

Direct Line: 01722 425113